

Leaders Creating Change

How can you, as a student leader, be a part of meaningful change on campus as well as inspire others to follow you? This workshop will include a discussion on practical activism and meaningful student engagement. You will learn how to mobilize students, faculty and administrators to effect positive change on campus.

*Mike Benitez Jr., Director of Intercultural Development
Daniel Bero '07*

DIY Promotion: Technology Skills for Student Leaders

If you are looking to make yourself a more effective leader, then technology can be a vital asset. This interactive workshop will focus on all the technologies that are available to you as a student leader on campus. Learn how to create slideshows and posters, maintain a webpage, record podcasts, and record videos.

YOU'VE GOT SKILLS:

Creating Your Leadership Profile

2007 Lafayette Leadership Institute

Registration & Breakfast

9:30 – 10:00 AM

Marquis Hall Lobby & Bergethon Room

---

Keynote Address 10:00 - 10:40 AM

Creating Leadership... Your Way

Susan Fox '88, Vice President for Government Relations at The Walt Disney Company, will talk about the way leadership skills vary by person, place, and time. As you forge your own leadership path, join with Ms. Fox as she shares her leadership story, from Lafayette all the way to her high-powered 'Mickey Mouse' job!

Block I Workshops 10:50 – 11:40 AM

Keynote Follow-Up

We invite you to join this small group keynote follow-up discussion with Susan Fox '88.

The Color of Your Leadership Profile

Many colors make up a rainbow, and many personalities make up the organizations and teams that you work with. In this session, you will complete a short worksheet to determine the color of your leadership and learn how you can best work with the other leadership styles.

Lauren M. Ibbotson, Asst. Director, Student Life Programs

Survival Skills for Effective Leaders

Becoming a leader often means taking on additional responsibilities. Although rewarding and educational, leadership and involvement can bring with it stress and anxiety. This workshop will help you identify where stress comes from, how it can affect your well-being, and healthy ways to deal with it, including setting priorities, learning to say no, and stress relieving activities.

Carmen Marsit '00, Asst. Professor, Brown University

New School, New Skills

This workshop will present diverse views on how to transition your leadership skills from high school to the college setting. The presenters will focus on how to manage the expectations of leadership at Lafayette, effective strategies to get involved on campus and means to improve and add to the leadership skills you learned while in high school.

*Tracy Salmon '08, Barie Salmon '08
Marvin Snipes '07, Paul Sommers '08*

---

Block II Workshops 11:50AM – 12:40 PM

Have You Got Global Perspective?

You need to incorporate global and cultural awareness into your leadership profile in order to be successful in today's world. Come explore the challenges and opportunities of leading in an ever smaller world and discover how you can incorporate such knowledge and sensibilities into your successful leadership profile.

Robert Sell '84, Managing Partner, Accenture

Approach the (Un)approachable

Expand your network of "contacts" to include upperclassmen, faculty and alumni. This interactive workshop will focus on building your strong interpersonal communication skills to solicit information and sell yourself. You will also learn how to employ effective techniques and strategies to be more confident and successful.

*Rachel Moeller '88, Assoc. Director, Career Services
Carmen Marsit '00, Asst. Professor, Brown University*

'Leaderless' Leadership

This workshop will present an organizational model from the world of music. Orpheus is an award winning orchestra that places the responsibility of leadership in the hands of the ensemble members rather than a single conductor. This seminar will help you understand group dynamics, problem solving, and organizational efficiency.

*Eric Bartlett, Orpheus Cellist
Ellis Finger, Director, The Williams Center for the Arts
Karen Forbes, Director, Counseling Center
Ben Doremus '07*

You've Got Style

How does your personality style impact how you interact with others? This workshop will introduce the five factor model of personality, provide you with feedback about your personality profile and explore the personality styles of famous leaders. (Participants must complete a ten-minute questionnaire at the Office of Student Life Programs by January 26)

*Amanda L. Johnson, Post Doctoral Student, Counseling Center
Tiffany O'Shaughnessy, Practicum-student, Counseling Center
Ryan Weatherford, Practicum-student, Counseling Center*

---

Lunch & Alumni Panel Presentation

12:40 – 2:00 PM

Bergethon Room, Marquis Hall

After our buffet lunch, a panel of distinguished alumni will discuss the transition from Lafayette student leader to successful graduate student or professional.

Moderator: Erin McKan '05, Assistant Director, Admissions Panel; Tom Johnson '93, Senior Producer, ABC World News Tonight with Charles Gibson; Emmanuel "Sonny" Kirunda '04, Graduate Engineer; Carmen Marsit '00, Assistant Professor of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine, Brown University; Robert Sell '84, Managing Partner and Chief Operating Officer Communications & High Tech, Accenture; Cassandra Torioian '93, Chief Investment Officer, Blue Rockefeller.

Block III Workshops 2:10 – 3:00 PM

Alumni Roundtable Discussions

You will have an opportunity to meet with the members of the alumni panel face-to-face for small group discussions. This is your chance to ask them questions and speak with them on a more personal level. You may spend your time with one alumnus or alumna or move from table to table. Sample questions will be provided and LLE student committee members will help facilitate at each round table.
